Will Strong Joins Cassidy Turley as Vice President
*CRE Industrial Professional Teams up with Mike Haenel and Andy Markham, SIOR

PHOENIX – August 9, 2013 – Cassidy Turley, a leading commercial real estate services provider in the U.S., today announced that Will Strong has joined the firm's Arizona office as a Vice President in the Industrial Group. Strong will be combining his brokerage practice with one of the companies top producing Industrial teams, Mike Haenel and Andy Markham, SIOR. The new team will focus on all aspects of Industrial brokerage services including development, project leasing and tenant representation throughout Metro Phoenix.

"Will has made a big impact in the market," said Bryon R. Carney, President & Managing Principal for Cassidy Turley in Arizona. "He is an accomplished professional with an excellent reputation in the commercial real estate industry. We are very happy to welcome him to our office."

According to Strong, "I am excited to join Cassidy Turley and team up with Mike Haenel and Andy Markham. I know that I am part of a firm whose focus is on the client and providing them with best-in-class services." He added, "Working with Mike and Andy allows me to partner with one of the Valley's most experienced and successful Industrial teams. I have so much respect for what they have accomplished and I am proud to be working alongside them now with our combined skill sets."

Will has over five years of brokerage experience, all with Cushman and Wakefield (C&W), and in the first few years of his career became the C&W, NAIOP and Arizona Commercial Real Estate Magazine's Rookie of the Year. An active member of NAIOP, Will serves on the group's Membership and Developing Leaders Steering Committees. Also, he is a mentor with Arizona Quest for Kids which helps prepare underprivileged students for success in higher education. Will is a graduate of Arizona State University.
